IMPORTANT

Read the Following Extracts

Chapter 234 of the General Laws, as amended

SECTION 1. A person of either sex qualified to vote for representative to the general court, whether registered voter or not, shall be liable to serve as a juror, except that

The Following Persons Shall Be Exempt

The governor; lieutenant governor; members of the council; state secretary; members and officers of the senate and house of representatives during a session of the general court; judges and justices of a court; county commissioners; clerks of courts and assistant clerks and all regularly appointed officers of the courts of the United States and of the commonwealth; registers of probate and insolvency; registers of deeds; sheriffs and their deputies; constables; marshals of the United States and their deputies, and all other officers of the United States; attorneys at law; settled ministers of the gospel; officers of colleges; preceptors and teachers of incorporated academies; registered practicing physicians and surgeons; persons over seventy years of age; persons under twenty-five years of age; members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company; members of the volunteer militia; superintendents, officers and assistants employed in or about a state hospital, insane hospital, jail, house of correction, state industrial school or state prison; keepers of lighthouses; conductors and engine drivers of railroad trains; teachers in public schools; engine-men and members of the fire department of Boston, and of other cities and towns in which such exemption has been made by vote of the city council or the inhabitants of the town; Christian Science practitioners and readers, respectively; women trained nurses; women assistants in hospitals; women attendant nurses; mothers of children under sixteen years of age or women having custody of such children and women members of religious orders.

SECTION 1A. If at any time it appears that the public interest will be served by excusing any person from jury service, or if the performance thereof will impose undue hardship or unusual inconvenience upon any person, the judge presiding at the court to which the juror has been called for service may excuse such person from jury duty.

No woman shall be required to serve in the trial of any prosecutions under sections twenty-two to twenty-four, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and sixty-five or under sections one to thirty-five, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and seventy-two if, upon her representation it appears to the presiding justice that she would be likely to be embarrassed by hearing the testimony or by discussing the same in the jury room.

SECTION 4. The board of election commissioners in cities having such boards, the board of registrars of voters in other cities and the board of selectmen in towns shall annually before July first prepare a list of such inhabitants of the city or town, qualified as provided in section one, of good moral character, of sound judgment and free from all legal exceptions, not exempt from jury service under section one or two, as they think qualified to serve as jurors. The board shall place on said list only the names of persons determined to be qualified as aforesaid upon the knowledge of one of its members, or after personal appearance and examination under oath, or after examination in the form of a questionnaire, approved by the state secretary, to be answered under oath, except that the board shall not place the name of any woman on said list if, in such personal appearance and examination or in such questionnaire, she claims, in writing, exemption from jury service. The board may summon persons to appear before it for examinations as to their qualifications for jury service and may compel their attendance before it and the giving of testimony in the same manner and to the same extent as may magistrates authorized to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses. Such examinations may be held before a single member of the board and for the aforesaid purpose each member may administer oaths. The board may further investigate by inquiries at such person's place of residence and of business or employment, or by other means, his reputation, character and fitness for such service. The chief of police or the police commissioner or the official having charge of the police shall upon request give the board all possible assistance in making such investigation. Upon the request of the board or any member thereof, any person shall answer all questions and give such information as he may have relating to the character or fitness for jury service of any person concerning whom such request is made, which information shall be confidential. To the name of each juror on said list shall be appended his place of residence, an exact description of his business or occupation, and the name and address of his employer or of his business. In the event that the person listed is a married woman, there shall be appended in addition an exact description of the business or occupation of her husband, and the name and address of his employer or of his business; and in the event that the person listed is unemployed or retired, there shall be appended an exact description of his last business or occupation, and the name and address of his last employer or of his last business.

OFFICE OF THE TOWN CLERK

INSTRUCTIONS TO ABSENT VOTERS

Section 103A of Chapter 54 of the General Laws, which has been accepted by the Town makes the provisions of said chapter relating to absent voting applicable to regular annual Town elections held in ..... Any voter who on the day of the ANNUAL TOWN ELECTION is absent from the Town may vote at such election if he seasonably files with the Town Clerk, Town Hall,....., Mass. an application for an official absent voting ballot in the form provided by law and prepared by the Town Clerk. (See other side.)

The absent voting ballot must be marked by the voter in some municipality other than....., in the presence of an official authorized by law to administer oaths and of no other person.

Before marking his ballot the voter shall exhibit it to said official who shall satisfy himself that it is unmarked, but the voter shall not allow the official to see how he marks it nor have any conversation with the official as to how he is to vote.

After marking his ballot the voter shall enclose and seal in the ballot envelope.

The affidavit on the ballot envelope shall be executed by the voter and the official, and mailed in the return envelope, properly marked and addressed to the Town Clerk of.....on or prior to the day of election at a post-office located in some municipality other than..... The envelope containing the ballot must reach the Town Clerk before the hour fixed for the closing of the polls on the day of election or the ballot will not be counted.

Any soldier, sailor or marine, without the United States, voting as herein permitted, may substitute for the required jurat and transmit with the sealed ballot, a written statement setting forth the facts required, made by any commissioned officer in the armed forces.

A voter may vote in person even if he has mailed an absent voter's ballot.

An absent voter who is unable to mark his ballot may have it marked for him by the clerk of a court of record, who shall add in writing to the jurat a statement of the fact that the voter is unable to write, stating the reason therefor, and shall sign the voter's name on both envelopes.

A voter in a penal institution under sentence is not permitted or entitled to vote as an absent voter.

Penalty for unlawfully voting or attempting to vote as an absent voter, or being an official trusted with the execution of the act relating to absent voters for violating any provision thereof, a fine of not more than five hundred dollars and by imprisonment in jail for not more than one year.
